Preparing for War.

Berlin, Aug., 20.—Sweeping charges in the command of the army are impending. Nine more generals, nine lieutenants and a number of major generals will retire. Gen. on Schellendorf's successor as minister of war will not be Gen. on Caprivi, as predicted, but Gen. on Hahnke, the present chief of the military cabinet. Gen. on Hahnke is a scientific soldier, an apt writer, a reputed strategist, and a favorite of the emperor. Gen. von Schellendorf gets the command of the 1st army corps. Gen. on Pape resigns the command of the Guards. Gen. on Alvensleben succeeding him; Gen. Branchitsch takes on Hahnke's place, and Gen. Vogel on Falkenstein becomes quartermaster general. Vice Admiral Count on Moule already acts as permanent chief of the naval department. Gen. on Caprivi, his predecessor in that office, getting command of the 13th army corps. The inspection of fortresses will be confined to Gen. on Goetz.

Another Millionaire Dying.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 20.—private letters received by young Flood state that Bonanza Millionaire Flood and his wife and daughter are still at Hamburg. The waters have caused no improvement in Flood's condition. The family have secured a villa at Nice where they will spend the winter. There is little prospect of Flood returning for several years. He has Bright's disease and his death is only a question of time.

A Garden Run to Weeds

Versailles, Aug. 15.—Dr. Campbell who has been delivering lectures on his different "theories," in a tent, at this place for several days, claims to have located the Garden of Eden in the United States. He says that the city of St. Louis is erected on the site of the Garden, and that the Mississippi is none other than the Euphrates River. He calls on the Bible to prove all his statements, and says that within two months he will have all the world agog on the subject.

Damming the Water.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 20.—The Rio Grande river at this point has stopped running entirely. The first time in seven years. There are no fear of a failing, as good water can be got at a depth of eight or ten feet anywhere in the valley, but the vineyard, orchards, and crops have begun to suffer down the valley on both sides of the river. The Mexicans attribute part of the present lack of water to its excessive use in New Mexico and Southern Colorado for irrigation canals, and they claim under the existing treaty they are entitled to one-half the water that comes down the river and the people have no right to erect such works as will cause the river to run dry before reaching Mexico. They say remonstrance will be sent to the City of Mexico asking the authorities to protest in Washington against the proposed irrigating canal through the Gornado del Muerto in New Mexico.

A Bloody Fight in the Dark.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 20.—Charles Anderson and Thomas Holderness fought a duel with knives in a dark room yesterday. Each pretended that the other wanted to rob him, and drawing their knives they slashed away at each other until an officer, who heard Mr. Anderson's shrieks for help, came in and put a stop to their pastime. Holderness was getting the worst of the encounter. His left arm was nearly cut off and he had a long scalp wound on the top of his head. One of Anderson's hands was frightfully cut. Both men were taken to the county hospital where their wounds were pronounced serious.

A Florida Lynching.

Apalachicola, Fla., Aug. 20.—A lynching took place at Ocheches. Calhoun county, Wednesday. Noah Griffin, a negro, wrote an insulting note to a young lady, (white) Miss Stormie Griffin. She showed the note to white men who caught Griffin, gave him 100 lashes and ordered him to leave the county. He did not go and forty masked men caught him and shot him to death. No arrests have been made.

Mr. Mills' Programme.

Washington, D. C., Aug., 20.—Hon. Roger Q. Mills, of Texas, left last night for Charleston, W. Va., where he expected to-night to address the Democrats of that city. He will then return to New Jersey, and next week will discuss the tariff and other campaign issues in that State. Mr. Mills does not expect to return to Washington for a month. It is said he has concluded that congress does not intend to adjourn until late in the fall, probably not until after the November election. He will therefore devote some time to campaign work, and after a wreck in New Jersey he will go to Chicago, where he is to speak on the 27th of August. Unless by that time congress shows symptoms of an early adjournment, Mr. Mills expects to make a few speeches in New York and New England before going to Texas to devote a little time to the campaign in his own district.

A Small Boy Brute.

San Antonio, Aug. 20.—While a colored family named Smith were eating their dinner to-day in their home near the Southern Pacific depot, their little daughter named Lucy, aged 7 years, took a piece of bread from the plate of her brother named Grant, 10 years old, and ran into the back yard to eat it. The boy became incensed at the table and got his father's 44-calibre out of a drawer, slipped out behind his sister, and placing the pistol at her back, shot her through the body. The girl is not yet dead, though there is no hope of her recovery. The boy is in jail.

Four Cases of Child Murder.

Houston, August 20.—The body of an infant packed in a five gallon oil can was found in a well in the rear of the colored Baptist church on Andrew street. The child was a mulatto. A colored school teacher by the name of Becky Bryant is thought to have given birth to the child and she has been arrested, as well as her mother. This makes four cases of infanticide in this city in a short space of time and this is the first arrest that has been made.

A Business Killing.

Marshall Tex., Aug. 20.—F. E. Gray was shot and killed here to-day by W. F. Slater his partner in the jewelry business. The fight grew out of a business disagreement.

Yellow Fever Report.

Jacksonville, August 20.—Two suspicious cases of fever have been reported since 6 o'clock yesterday evening. One death occurred at Sand Hill last night, James M. Minton from the Grand Union Hotel block.

Curious Effect of Hall.

Nevada, Mo., August 20.—A Mr. Sullivan living in the northern part of this county, is undergoing a peculiar and painful experience, as one of the immediate results of the recent destructive hail and wind storms. He had a cow killed in the storm, supposed to be by hailstones. The next day he skinned her, and the hogs devoured the carcass. Since then the hogs have all died. Their mouths swelled until they could neither eat nor drink. Mr. Sullivan's arms also swelled alarmingly. The doctors say they will have to be amputated.

The Great Elopers.

St. Louis Aug 20.—Alexander Young an attorney of this city, returned here to-day from Toronto, where he was sent to make a settlement with Mrs. Norton, the woman who recently eloped with Editor Moore. He says they are living there in a boarding house and Moore is very despondent.

Mrs. Norton offered no objections to a settlement of the estate and signed the deeds submitted to her. She received a fair consideration in cash and securities for her interest in the estate. There was $2500 worth of jewelry and Mrs. Norton gets the bulk of it. She told the attorney that she intended to stay with Moore and intimated that they would go to Europe. She intends to return to the state as soon as possible.
